Sample Itinerary (subject to change)

June 22: A morning departure from a convenient pickup location. We'll arrive in DC late morning and visit the National Mall where we'll have ample time to visit your favorite museums including the Smithsonian, the Museum of American History as well as the Air & Space Museum. Later this afternoon we'll check into the Spring Hill Suites in nearby Alexandria. After we freshen up, we'll head to National Stadium, where we'll enjoy the Nats vs Phillies from our lower level box seats. Go Phillies!

June 23: After our included breakfast, we'll meet our local guide for an extended in-depth tour of DC. We'll stop at the World War II, the Lincoln, Korean, Vietnam and Martin Luther King Memorials, as well as ride by the Capitol Building, the White House, and Embassy Row with our expert local guide. Tonight we'll enjoy dinner at the Fish Market in Old Town Alexandria, where we will also have free time to explore this exciting area on our own.

June 24: After breakfast today, we'll head to Baltimore's famous Inner Harbor where we'll enjoy a narrated Harbor Cruise and have some free time to explore the many shops, pubs, and restaurants of the Inner Harbor. We'll meet for a late lunch at Phillips Seafood House, one of Baltimore's most highly regarded restaurants. After dining, we'll begin our easy ride back to home-sweet-home.
